

JUDGE BETHURUM TO BE CANDIDATE FOR U. S. SENATE

Prominent Republican Announces That He Will Be a Candidate for the Republican Nomination for Senator in 1924.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 2. — Judge B. J. Bethurum, for twelve years circuit judge of the Twenty-eighth Judicial District, today confirmed a report published in Sunday's Leader that he will be a candidate for the Republican senatorial nomination in 1924, when the term of Senator A. O. Stanley, Democratic incumbent and senior senator will expire.

When asked for a statement regarding persistent reports that he would enter the contest for the Kentucky toga, Judge Bethurum said: "You may say that I will be in the race for the Senate in 1924 and that at the proper time I will make formal announcement of my candidacy."

"I have been encouraged to believe that my entrance into the race will promote harmony and bring about a feeling of good fellowship in our ranks which is so necessary to success in Kentucky. Two years ago I was urged to make the race for senator and had pledged of support from all over the state. A careful study of the situation convinced me that it was for the best interest of the presidential election that no primary be held in Kentucky that year, and I cheerfully yielded in the interest of Senator Ernst."

Judge Bethurum has been legal adviser to the Kentucky prohibition department and chief assistant to Director Sam Collins for the past year and has greatly increased his popularity with the rank and file of the people who stand for strict enforcement of the prohibition laws.

Judge Bethurum was a candidate in the 1918 Republican primary for the senatorial nomination, but was defeated by a small margin by Dr. Ben L. Bruner, of Louisville, who in turn was defeated by Senator Stanley at the general election. Judge Bethurum was in a Chicago hospital during most of the campaign and did not make an active canvass of the state in 1918.

It is considered probable that Dr. Bruner may oppose him again in the 1924 contest. Others who have been mentioned as possible candidates are Governor Morrow and Judge Charles Kerr, who recently resigned as judge of the Panama Canal Zone to accept a place on the War Frauds Commission at Washington.

PRISON TERMS AND BIG FINES ASSESSED BY JUDGE COCHRAN

In Passing Sentence on Those Convicted at Covington Federal Court, Judge Cochran Says Prohibition Laws Must Be Enforced.

Covington, Ky., Nov. 2. — Asserting that he was determined to see that the national prohibition laws were enforced, Judge Cochran, presiding in United States Court for the Eastern District of Kentucky, yesterday sentenced Carl Webber, Covington; and Charles Ewan, Hotel Sinton, Cincinnati, and Fred Betz, Southgate, each to serve two years in the penitentiary and each to pay a fine of $10,000.

The three men were convicted on charges of conspiring to violate the national prohibition laws. Others sentenced on similar charges to two years in the penitentiary were William E. Cottingham, proprietor of the "Licking Inn," Newport, and Charles B. Wilson and Frederick Young, owners of "The Spot," Licking pike, south of Newport. Camillus Terlau, charged with the defacing and possessing Liberty bonds, was sentenced to serve ten years in the penitentiary. The bonds had been stolen previously from the Walton Savings Bank, Walton, Ky., when burglars visited that institution. Terlau has already served eighteen months in the Covington jail.

Before passing sentence Judge Cochran indicated that those found guilty on conspiracy charges would be punished with penitentiary sentences, second offenders of prohibition laws would be placed in jail and first violators of the same laws would be fined.

Judge Cochran said: "Violations of the prohibition laws are largely due to the opposition of many respectable citizens to these laws. Violation of these laws lead to violations of other laws. Personally, I think these laws should be enforced, and I believe they will be enforced."

JAIL TRUSTY SKIPS TOWN AND GETS IN TROUBLE

William Edgar Takes Excursion to Cincinnati While Serving Out Jail Sentence and Gets Into Trouble.

William Edgar who recently settled several criminal cases by paying fines aggregating $775.00, while serving out a ten day jail sentence before gaining his freedom, was treated as a trusty at the local jail by Jailer Wheeler and was given leave to go about the city unguarded.

It has just become known that Edgar took "French leave" Sunday deciding that he would spend the day in Cincinnati. Shortly after his arrival in Cincinnati, it appears that he got too much to drink and caused some trouble which resulted in his arrest. He called on Jailer Wheeler, who held considerable money belonging to the prisoner, to come to his rescue.

Deputy Jailer Gaskins went to Cincinnati, paid Edgar's fine for him and returned the prisoner here. He was taken out of the trusty class and must remain behind bars until his jail sentence has been completed.

BLOODHOUNDS CALLED TO TRAIL POISONER OF CATTLE

Manchester Bloodhounds Trail From Field Where Poison Had Been Put To Home of Lewis County Man.

Captain Thurman Sowers, of Manchester, Ohio, the bloodhound man, passed through Maysville Thursday morning en route to Manchester from the Poplar Flat neighborhood in Lewis county where he had been called by Mr. Lafayette Hunt, well known farmer, who had found a large quantity of bluestone and salt scattered about his pasture field, evidently in an attempt to poison his cattle and sheep.

Captain Sowers' dogs took a trail from the field in which the poison had been placed and ran directly to the home of Dan Richards a well-known huckster of that neighborhood. Warrants were asked for a son of Mr. Richards and will likely be served Thursday.

No cause for the placing of the poison in the field was given neither was there any reason given for suspecting young Mr. Richards except that the bloodhounds ran to his home.

JUDGE MAKES GOOD ON THREAT TO JAIL MAN

Colored Man Fails to Keep his Promise To City Judge and Must Now Lay Out One Hundred Days in Jail.

A few days ago "Bud" Berry, colored, charged with a breach of the peace was before Judge Harry C. Curran in City Court. It was proven that Berry had struck his wife and on these wife beaters Judge Curran has been rather hard since his induction into office.

Judge Curran fined Berry $100 and costs but held up judgment upon Berry's promise to leave Maysville immediately. The court gave him twenty-four hours in which to make his preparations to leave the city. These twenty-four hours elapsed at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Word came to the court Thursday morning that Berry had not left the city nor had he made any arrangements to leave the city. Chief of Police James Mackey and Police Lieutenant Carl Carpenter Thursday took Berry into custody and Judge Curran sent him to jail to serve out his fine admonishing him and all others that the mandates of the city court must be obeyed.

POOL TOBACCO RECEIVING TO START EARLY IN DECEMBER

Burley Directors Told of Low Cost of Marketing—Receiving Is to Start Early Next Month.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 2.—Members of the board of directors of the Burley Tobacco Growers Co-operative Association, in regular monthly session here yesterday with all the directors present, heard a report on the expense of marketing the tobacco of the members, which with every possible item of cost added will not exceed 75 cents a hundred pounds, as contrasted with a probable average of $1.25 a hundred pounds for the growers who sold outside the association; learned that they had increased the value of their tobacco $750,000 by proper grading and air-drying; were told that the receiving of this year's crop would start December 1 to 15, and listened to a contrast of conditions prevailing now in the burley district and those which existed in the crop year of 1920-1921 by Judge Robert W. Bingham, of Louisville, who also reported to the directors on the success of the dark tobacco growers in forming their co-operative association.

Judge Bingham said that some of the leaders of the movement in the dark belt, when they learned that lack of money was keeping out tenants on their farms, raised the money required by the tenants and loaned it to them.

The report of William Collins, chief of the field service division, showed that the association now has 73,265 members and that it is likely the number will exceed 75,000 by the time contracts being signed this week and next Monday are in.

Of the 54,000 hogheads sold to the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company 13,749 hogheads have been delivered, President Stone said. Mr. Stone also said that three of the big tobacco concerns are ready to buy the tobacco of the association as soon as it is delivered.

MR. W. H. FREDERICK DIES FROM INJURIES

Prominent Contractor and Builder Dies Following Injuries Sustained When Struck By Railway Motor.

Mr. W. H. Frederick, one of the best known contractors and most capable builders ever in Maysville, died at his home in Front street at about midnight Wednesday evening following confinement to his home for about two months occasioned by an accident on the C. & O. railroad in front of his home. Mr. Frederick was crossing the railroad tracks early on the morning of September 5th when he was run into by a motor car operated by one of the railroad company's electricians. He suffered a fracture of both legs and was otherwise injured.

Mr. Frederick was 77 years of age and a native of Brown county, Ohio. He served as a member of an Ohio artillery company during the Civil War and shortly after the close of the war moved to this city where he engaged in contracting. Some of the city's most imposing buildings are monuments to his skill.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. M. B. Easton, of Cincinnati, and Mrs. W. E. Wilhoit, of this city. His wife preceded him to the grave several years ago.

The funeral will be from the home Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock with services by Dr. John Barbour, of the Presbyterian church. Burial at the Maysville cemetery.

Williams and had recently moved to this city from Maysville, Ky., while the groom is the son of John Wyatt an employee of the Merit. The couple will make their home in Mayfield, Ky.

WIDOW'S STATEMENT IS DENIED BY MILLS IN A STATEMENT

Janitor of New Brunswick Church Denies Part of the Statement Made By Widow of Pastor to Newspaper Men Yesterday.

New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 2. — James Mills, husband of the slain choir singer, asserted today several statements made by Mrs. Frances Noel Hall, the rector's widow, in an interview with newspaper men yesterday were untrue.

Detective James Mason charged discrepancies existed between statements of Mrs. Hall and those of "other witnesses," while Mrs. Jane Gibson, who claims to have witnessed the dual murder, simultaneously attacked statements made by the rector's widow, who she charges, was present at the slaying of Rev. Edward W. Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Mills.

Mills, laying aside the meek demeanor he has assumed since the crime, took issue with Mrs. Hall's assertion that she notified police of her husband's disappearance before she saw Mills the morning after the rector left home.

"I met Mrs. Hall about 8:30 a. m., Friday, at the church and she told me Hall had not been home the previous night," Mills said.

"I said, 'Neither was Eleanor. Maybe they have eloped.'"

"No, it must have been foul play," she replied.

"I myself suggested calling police and she said she would telephone them and did not intimate she already had called them. Later in the day she told me she had notified them Mrs. Mills was missing."

Mrs. Hall said repeatedly yesterday she had not talked with Mills as to the possibility of foul play or an elopement.

OUR POLICY:

And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the county as a whole.

WHY NOT CLOSE THE GAP

That the recent coal and railroad strikes which produced a marked shortage of coal at practically every city along the Ohio River has emphasized the necessity of Ohio River improvement at the earliest possible date was the declaration of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association which closed an enthusiastic session at Louisville last week.

The cure for this evil was declared to be the completion within five years of the twelve locks and dams which will complete the canalization of the Ohio River from Pittsburgh to Cairo and insure a nine foot stage from source to mouth at all seasons.

Resolutions were adopted declaring that Congress should immediately adopt the "Continuing Contract Plan" for the completion of improvements along the Ohio River and make generous appropriations until the work is accomplished.

Statements were made at the convention by distinguished members of the United States Engineers Corps that if such annual appropriations were given the United States Engineers, with authority to continue the work, there would be no difficulty in completing the work within the next five years.

The convention developed that of the fifty-one locks and dams necessary to assure a nine foot navigation stage in the Ohio River, thirty-six are already completed and in successful operation, and that of the twelve yet to be completed, six are under construction and but six are to be commenced.

Of the nine hundred and fifty (950) miles traversed by the Ohio River from Pittsburgh to Cairo, more than six hundred miles (600), or the distance to a point below Louisville can now be navigated by light draft vessels and barges for fully two hundred and twenty (220) days of the year, and on an artificial wave it has been possible to float down coal cargoes almost as far as Owensboro and Evansville.

The Ohio Valley Improvement Association has adopted the slogan "Close the Gap" for its 1922-23 campaign and it expects to carry the battle to Congress until the nation is thrilled with the importance of immediate action for the joining of the navigation of Ohio and Mississippi rivers and the creation of a stable route from the Middle West to the Gulf of Mexico.

The Louisville meeting was the most successful convention in the history of the association and was attended by 800 representative business men from cities of the Ohio Valley section in Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, West Virginia, Illinois and Pennsylvania.

In many of the cities builders have been bidding against each other for carpenters, until wages in some instances have gone up to $12 a day. Yet the Democrats tell us American industry is depressed.

COMMENT

"The Unloved Wife," is the title of a play booked for an early appearance at the Washington Theater. The world seems to be full of them just now and it also looks like there are many "Unloved Husbands" about.

Local football fans are hoping that before the season closes the Maysville High School football team will meet a team of about its own size. The local team has the grit and "pep" and the boys know the game but they lack the "beef." Can't we find a team about the weight of the locals for a big Thanksgiving game? We can all go out on the holiday and lend the boys our support.

Now that Hallow 'E'en is over, all attention will be turned to plans for Thanksgiving. Turkey, cranberries and plum pudding are the first requisites to a real Thanksgiving dinner. In the other days there were other things included but then what's the use of even thinking about it. It looks very much like "them days are gone forever."

Speaking of pre-Volstead times: It looks like quite a little bit of interest has been stirred up in Ohio on the question and its outcome in November will be looked forward to keenly. Wonder if all this will be stirred up in Kentucky again next year at the state election. It makes a nice nasty scrap.

The clairvoyant, who has been making Maysville twice a week for the past few weeks, has stirred up more excitement among the local women than a first class scandal could have accomplished.

Eight deaths from diphtheria in one precinct are reported from Fleming county. The State Board of Health has issued warning after warning on this disease and yet parents heed not the warning. The Mason County Health Officer informs us that there is not a single case of the disease in Mason county at present and we hope there will not be, but parents should watch their children and investigate at the first appearance of sore throat.

Old man Villa is heard from again down in Mexico where a few years ago he raised all sorts of Cain "agin" the government. This time he has been wounded by one of the employees on his own ranch, whose son Villa is reported to have killed. Villa has been behaving himself perfectly for the past several months and here's hoping this don't start him on another revolution.

That show "The Rubicon" which was stopped by the Mayor of Cincinnati after Sunday night's performance, must be the worst ever. When they get too bad for Cincinnati they are going some.

A news item says that one Detroit automobile firm sold sixty million dollars' worth of automobiles during the month of October. Money is getting more plentiful and Uncle John D. chuckles on at the increase of his patrons.

STORM CUTS SWATH THROUGH MISSOURI TOWN.

The storm struck first in the south part of the city, passed over the business section and dipped again in the northwest residential section. In each place building in an area of about a quarter of a mile square were demolished.

COULD HARDLY STAND AT TIMES

Hips, Back and Legs Would Have That Tired Ache

Everett, Washington.—"For several years I have had trouble with the lowest part of my back and my hips and my legs would ache with that tired ache. I could hardly stand on my feet at times. I was always able to do my work although I did not feel good. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and having heard several praise it I decided to try it. I feel first-rate at the present time. It has done wonders for me and I keep it in the house right along. I always recommend it to others who are sick and ailing."—Mrs. J. M. SINGER, 4032 High St., Everett, Washington.

To do any kind of work, or to play for that matter, is next to impossible if you are suffering from some form of female trouble. It may cause your back or your legs to ache, it may make you nervous and irritable. You may be able to keep up and around, but you do not feel good. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine for women. It is especially adapted to relieve the cause of the trouble and then these annoying pains, aches and "no good" feelings disappear. It has done this for many, many women; why not give it a fair trial now.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington.—The time-worn tactics of criticism of the Republican party, unaccompanied by any semblance of constructive thought, have caused a bad slump in the Democratic barometer during the past three months. Last July some pessimistic political prophets estimated that the Republicans would control the Lower House by not more than 30 at the highest, while a few joy-killers thought the Democrats would capture that body. Today it is freely predicted that the Republican majority will be not less than 60 and more likely 75. The Senate has never been in danger, but it is now believed that the present majority will be maintained. Public reaction has been so discouraging to the Democrats that they are now preparing a soft spot on which to fall by creating the impression that they never at any time expected to capture Congress, but merely to make a material reduction of the Republican majority. The latter have freely conceded that the present majority of 167 would be cut down in the next Congress. This ponderous majority was the result of the high-tide of opposition to Wilsonism and the public insistence that, to quote the 1920 convention speech of Senator Lodge, "Mr. Wilson and his dynasty, his heirs and assigns, o r anybody that is his, anybody who with bent knee has served his purposes, must be driven from all control, from all influence upon the Government of the United States." What the Republicans want in the next Congress is a good working majority in order that the work of reconstruction may go on.

One of the leaders of the Democratic campaign is Senator Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, and the recent speeches he has been making in Oklahoma are typical of the weakness of his party's attitude. Thus far he has suggested nothing of a constructive nature. The ship subsidy plan is denounced by him and the promise made that the Democrats will maintain the merchant marine, but he refuses to tell how it will be done, and every nation of importance now operating a merchant marine is extending government aid to its carriers.

Recently at Tulsa he attacked the action of the Administration "in opposition to the action of the farm bloc and in passing such legislation as the Fordney-McCumber tariff, which is inimical to the interests of the farmer." That is bunk and Harrison knows it. Farm products were never so well protected as they are under the present law, and the farm bloc secured about all it set out to get. The farmers have never been so well satisfied as they are with the Fordney-McCumber law. Harrison said the true way to bring prosperity to the agricultural elements is to build up export trade and that "the farmers of America must know that their prosperity depends not on making their crops alone but equally as much in finding markets for them." That was a silly statement to make in view of the fact that during the fiscal year 1921 we imported $1, 295,000,000 worth of foreign foodstuffs under the Democratic tariff law, while in 1922, under the emergency tariff law foreign competition was cut down to $635,000,000, or less than half that for the previous year. And with one or two exceptions the present tariff law continues the emergency program. The home market for all products of mill, mine and farm is worth about eighty billions of dollars, while the export market will not be worth more than five billions for some time to come. The American farmer is not ready to surrender the substance for the shadow, and he knows that with mill labor fully employed because of the protective policy, the home market is his best bet.

It is no longer a question of the Republicans controlling the next Congress, the question is how big will be the majority? Assured of, and contented with the prospect of a good working majority the Republican party is unperturbedly at work mapping out the program for the constructive legislation of the 68th Congress. Harding will have his party back of him.

BURLEY BOOKS ACTUALLY CLOSE ON NOVEMBER 6

President Stone Says No New Members Will Be Accepted In Burley Pool After November 6th.

erative Association on November 6, with the further final assurance that the books of the association would not be reopened to permit the signing up of 1922 crops after that date. It was said at the offices of the field service division, has had the effect of stimulating the signing up of no w members throughout the district. Acting Chief of the Field Service Division William Collins said that 365 new contracts had been received during the week ending Saturday and that many county workers had reported contracts in their hands that would be sent to the association offices the coming week.

The importance of correct postoffice addresses the legible writing of the names of the new members are being impressed upon the workers by Mr. Collins, as a little care in having the name and address correctly written now may save much trouble for the general office and the field service division in future.

Plans have been completed for the final drive in every county in the district this week and the association officials expect to add considerably to the membership the next few days.

Reports have been received by the field service division and by President James C. Stone of the purchase by speculators of widely scattered crops at high prices, in order to keep out of the association the few tobacco growers still on the outside, but work say that growers see through this proposition readily, and ers not deceived by it. One tobacco grower reported that one of these speculators had purchased a crop of tobacco at 48 cents a pound, another at 30 cents, and several at 27 cents, but that these crops were miles apart and that growers who learned of the sales and endeavored to sell their own crops to the same buyer were told that he already had purchased "his requirements" and that he would buy no more in the particular section in which he had bought the good crops.

In a public statement Judge W. A. Baskett, of Brandenburg, declared that the speculators buying up these outside crops in Southern Indiana and northwestern Kentucky were not paying more than half what the tobacco is worth.

Chief Collins said requests for contracts were coming in from all parts of the district and that judging from the enthusiasm shown by members and workers the final week's work would result in reaching the goal of 75,000 members.

Burley leaders were pleased to hear from the dark tobacco district that the drive which ended Saturday had resulted in the signing up of enough tobacco to make sure the success of the organization there, as more than 70 per cent. has been signed.

President Stone has returned from Ohio, where he spoke at Georgetown, Brown county, Saturday morning, Vice President Kehoe speaking at the same point in the afternoon. Mr. Stone said the Ohio growers were enthusiastic and working hard to bring every outsider into the association.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 1.—Open season on quail and rabbits will begin in Kentucky, November 15. At the Game and Fish Commission reports from all sections indicate that birds are unusually plentiful. The season on migratory game birds, already open in Kentucky, began in Tennessee today and many hunters are going to Reelfoot Lake, where wild ducks and geese halt in their flight to the South. Good sport is assured by the early arrivals although the pleasant weather is detaining the birds in the North this fall.

JAIL DELIVERY AT WINCHESTER HEADED BY FINDING OF KEYS

Discovery of Keys in Winchester Jail Indicate That Hardman and the Miller Wealthy Prisoners There Had Planned Escape.

Winchester, Ky., Nov. 1.—Confession of an inmate that duplicate keys had been made to doors of the Clark county jail, where are confined Scobee Hardman, indicted for alleged complicity in the murder of Leon Renaker, and Ike Miller, wealthy Fayette county farmer, serving a three months jail sentence for violation of federal prohibition laws, foiled jail delivery, it developed here today.

The keys were found last Sunday in one of the cells of the inner cages of the jail after a search instituted by Chief of Police J. S. Mullins and Jailor Carroll Azbill. They were found in the cell and not in the possession of any prisoner.

One of the keys had been made from a piece of hard steel on which plainly visible were vise marks and apparently had been manufactured outside the institution as the steel could hardly be scratched by a file. It is believed that this key was made from an impression taken from the jailer's keys on September 19, when a certain inmate was called to the long distance telephone in the jailer's office and had access to the keys.

The second key was made from the blade of a table knife sent into the jail with meals served by a restaurant. Scobee Hardman has his meals sent in regularly from this restaurant. Ike Miller's meals are sent from another restaurant. No other inmate of the jail has his meals sent in from the outside.

The second key, made from the knife blade, was fashioned inside the jail, officials say they believe. Either key will fit the lock in cell five from which jail inmates can make a clean getaway through an unlocked door.

The pieces of paper used for making key impressions have been found and are declared to be identical with letter paper Hardman used last Friday when he wrote a note to the jailer asking that he be placed in the hospital ward because he was ill. The hospital ward is never locked, it is said. Ike Miller is said to have paper identical with that Hardman used.

The investigators believe that the persons who took the impressions were either the inmate who frequently used the long distance telephone in the jailer's office where the keys are kept or some one who has access to the jailer's residence.

Piecing together threads of evidence they had collected, the authorities believe the jail delivery had been planned for the latter part of the week or Sunday night. They also expressed the belief that an aeroplane was to be used in making the escape. A plane was said to have hovered over the city part of Saturday and Sunday, never attempting to alight, however.

Hardman today was placed in a cage behind locked doors and orders were issued that he is to have no visitors unless they are accompanied by the jailer, and visiting will be restricted. Heretofore Hardman has been receiving guests daily with very little restrictions.

Hon. Alva Adams, of Pueblo, Colo., former governor of Colorado, died Thursday morning at Battle Creek, Michigan.
